

Olivia Findley, Associate

Overview

Olivia Findley believes strong communication is the key to successful results and client relationships. While in law school, Olivia served as a staff editor on the law review and previously received her B.A. in English.

Olivia focuses her practice in retail and restaurant defense, insurance defense, arson and fraud, automobile liability, and premises liability.

A strong advocate for children's wellbeing, Olivia served as a student attorney in the Child and Family Advocacy Clinic during law school, advocating for clients involved in the juvenile justice, child welfare, and child order of protection systems in the St. Louis area.
