

Susan F. E. Bruhnke, Special Counsel

Overview

Susan F.E. Bruhnke approaches each case intending to resolve her client's legal issues efficiently and effectively. She is driven to exceed clients' expectations and create cost-effective solutions to accomplish their goals. Susan represents each client with the utmost integrity and respect to ensure that each client gets the high level of representation they deserve.

Susan focuses her practices in the area of workers' compensation defense under Mississippi's Workers' Compensation Act and the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as well as insurance defense litigation. Susan is also a member of the Harrison County Bar Association, the American Bar Association, the Mississippi State Bar, and the Mississippi Defense Lawyers Association.

Susan and her husband, Matthew, a Lieutenant in the Gulfport Fire Department, have four children. They reside in Biloxi, Mississippi and are members of Michael Memorial Baptist Church.

Education

- University of Mississippi School of Law, 1999, J.D. cum laude
- University of South Alabama, 1994, B.A. Criminal Justice and German, magna cum laude

Admissions

- 5th Circuit Court of Appeals
- 11th Circuit Court of Appeals
- The Mississippi Bar
- The Alabama Bar

Associations

- Harrison County Bar Association
- The Mississippi Bar
- Mississippi Defense Lawyers Association
- Defense Research Institute

Contact

2510 14th Street
Suite 910
Gulfport, Mississippi 39501

sbrunke@gallowaylawfirm.com
Office: 228-214-4250
Fax: 228-214-9650

Practices

Insurance Defense & Coverage
Workers' Compensation
Litigation
Maritime & Admiralty

Industries

Insurance
Maritime & Admiralty
Health Care

- Mobile County Bar Association
- Kids' Chance Mediation Board Member