Going Through the Motions: Best Practices as Seen From the Bench

November 15, 2011

8 – 10 a.m.

South Texas College of Law – Houston

Garrett Townes Room

1.5 Hours CLE Pending

Texas Lawyer has assembled a group of distinguished judges who will candidly share their perspectives on strategic considerations when writing and arguing motions; the characteristics and composition of effective briefs and oral arguments; tips on courtroom appearances; and common mistakes even good litigators make.

Judicial Panel:

Judge Al Bennett – 61st District Court

Judge Sylvia Matthews – 281st district court

Judge Robert Schaffer – 152nd District Court

Judge Randy Wilson – 157th District Court
