

Representative of the Year...

Last night, Executive Women International, New Orleans Chapter awarded the 2011 Representative of the Year Award to Candice Herrington. It's a wonderful recognition of Candice's contributions to the chapter and to the community as a whole. Andrea Albert was a past recipient of the Representative of the Year Award in 2009 and Doris Bobadilla received the award in 2006. GJTBS has a proud tradition with this organization. The firm was also recognized for 10 years of membership and service. Candice, Andrea and Doris are with the firm's Mandeville, Louisiana office.

Great work!
