Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr & Smith, PLC Has Seven Attorneys Named To Louisiana Super Lawyers and Rising Stars' 2012 List

New Orleans, LA (December 23, 2011)– Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr & Smith, a Gulf South litigation firm, is pleased to announce that John E. Galloway, Larry G. Canada, and Timothy W. Hassinger have been recognized by Louisiana Super Lawyers®. Michael D. Lonegrass was also recognized as a Rising Star for 2012. No more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state receive this honor each year.

The selections for this esteemed list are made by the research team at Super Lawyers, which is a service of Thomson Reuters. Each year, the research team at Super Lawyers undertakes a rigorous multi-phase selection process that includes a statewide survey of lawyers, individual surveys of candidates by the attorney-led research staff, a peer review of candidates by practice area and a good-standing and disciplinary check.

John E. Galloway, a Director in the New Orleans, Louisiana office has been recognized by Super lawyers five consecutive years including the Business Edition and Corporate Counsel Edition for the areas of Litigation and Personal Injury Defense. Throughout his career, Mr. Galloway has 46 Federal Court and 36 State Court reported decisions, a respected achievement. He has many practice areas, but litigates primarily in maritime and trucking personal injury defense and property damage and professional liability defense litigation.

Larry G. Canada, a Director in both the New Orleans and Gulfport offices has been recognized as a Louisiana Super Lawyer for 2012 in the area of Professional Liability Defense.

Timothy W. Hassinger, a Director in both the Mandeville and New Orleans offices has been recognized as a Louisiana Super Lawyer for 2012 in the area of Transportation/Maritime.

Michael D. Lonegrass, a Director in the New Orleans office has been recognized as a Louisiana Rising Star for 2012 in the areas of Personal Injury Defense and General Law.

GJTBS is proud of these exceptional attorneys and their outstanding accomplishments.
