

Autumn P. George, Director, CCP

Overview

Autumn brought her Georgia roots to Florida and is a Director in the Tampa office. Autumn practices civil litigation in state and federal court with an emphasis on general negligence and premises liability defense, property insurance, professional negligence defense, and employment defense. She also assists businesses on human resources and other employment matters.

In representing both carriers and private businesses, Autumn understands the importance of quality, cost-effective legal representation. To that end, Autumn works with her clients to implement a results-oriented defense strategy to achieve an early assessment of exposure or liability. She is also a firm believer in keeping her clients timely informed of case developments. In implementing this focused, collaborative approach, Autumn can help her clients obtain the desired outcome, ranging from early settlement to an aggressive defense through trial. Autumn has tried cases in state and federal court and before the Office of the Judges of Compensation Claims. Prior to joining the firm, Autumn worked with several federal judges and gained valuable insight from a judicial perspective that she has implemented in her own practice.

Autumn is a licensed instructor with the state of Florida and frequently presents continuing education seminars on a variety of topics ranging from ethics and claims handling to strategic negotiations. She also welcomes the opportunity to develop presentations tailored to the needs of specific clients.
