

Public Bid Protest Verdict in Louisiana...

Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr and Smith (GJTBS) wins a public bid protest challenging the division of facility planning, State of Louisiana on a public university construction project. The judge issued an injunction prohibiting the award to another contractor. The legal issue involved how corrections are made to a bid form and whether one set of initials is sufficient to change the bid amount.

Related Industries

Construction