

LCA Annual Conference a Success

This past week, the Louisiana Claims Association held its annual conference at the Beau Rivage. Firm Director, Joe Hassinger, was privileged to present a seminar titled, Negotiating Roadblocks to Successful Mediation. "This was my first opportunity to present to LCA, and I must say, I was impressed," said Hassinger. "The attendees are obviously very experienced and knowledgeable, which makes the seminars and the conference as a whole extremely worthwhile," he added. Next year's conference will be June 4-6 in Baton Rouge, so mark your calendars
