

Matthew Williams to Join Back Bay Mission Board

Matthew Williams, special counsel in the firm's Gulfport office, will serve a three-year term on the Board of Directors for the Back Bay Mission. The organization is a local non-profit that provides assistance to those suffering from poverty and its effects, while building pathways to social justice. The Mission leads the way in providing services, creating collaborative solutions and transforming the lives of those who are homeless and in need along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.
