

Candice Herrington Named Representative of the Year by Executive Women International, New Orleans Chapter

---

The firm is pleased to congratulate Candice Herrington on being elected to receive the 2015 Representative of the Year Award for Executive Women International (EWI), New Orleans Chapter. Members of the chapter nominate and vote for one person to be selected to receive the award. The award recognizes time and effort to the development of the chapter and contribution of community wide significance. Candice is the Office Manager of the Mandeville office of Galloway, Johnson, Tompkins, Burr & Smith. She served as the President of the EWI, New Orleans Chapter for 2014-2015 and previously served on the board as Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. Candice also dedicates a significant amount of her time fundraising for the NO/AIDS Taskforce.