

Netconnect 2016 Follow Up with Attorneys Doris Bobadilla, Matthew Williams, and John Getty

---

This October, attorneys Doris Bobadilla, Matthew Williams, and John Getty presented at Netconnect 2016 and covered the latest Wage and Hour changes and Employee Handbook essential provisions. Below, are more details regarding each presentation.

October 2016 // NetConnect 2016 Conference // Working For a Living: Tips and Tactics for Handling the December 2016 White Collar FLSA Exemption Changes.

Doris Bobadilla along with, John Getty, presented an in-depth look at the December 2016 overtime rule changes, including how the “White Collar” exemptions are changing and identifying ways companies can meet the new regulatory challenges.

October 2016 // NetConnect 2016 Conference // Working 9 to 5: Employee Handbook Basics and Hot Topic Provisions.

Doris Bobadilla along with, Matthew Williams, presented a broad review of “hot topics” in employment law detailing the ways companies and their HR professionals may use company policies and employee handbooks to minimize potential exposure created by employment-related claims.

October 2016 // NetConnect 2016 Conference // Breakout Session following Working For a Living.

Matthew Williams along with, John Getty, hosted a roundtable discussion group with company representatives across numerous industries about the December 2016 “White Collar” exemption changes and how they might tailor their employment practices to the new rules.

October 2016 // NetConnect 2016 Conference // Breakout Session following Working 9 to 5.

Matthew Williams along with, John Getty, hosted a roundtable discussion group about the different ways companies can use their policies and employee handbooks to address persistent issues in employment law.