

McKenzie L. Brown, Associate

Overview

In working with insurance carriers and private businesses, McKenzie takes a vigorous yet practical approach to all matters, focusing on early and thorough factual investigation and assessment of liability and exposure to reach the best possible result for her client. McKenzie builds relationships via effective communication with her clients as they work closely together to develop the best defense.

McKenzie's practice focuses on defending all types of personal injury matters, including auto, trucking, products liability, premises liability, and maritime and oilfield incidents. She also represents owners, general contractors, and subcontractors in construction litigation matters. Additionally, McKenzie represents commercial clients in property and business disputes.

McKenzie was born in Lubbock, Texas and grew up in Corsicana, just south of Dallas. Thus, she has ties throughout the state. In her free time, McKenzie enjoys traveling and spending time with her husband, Trevor, and son, Cooper, as well as their rescue dogs Ruby and Riley.
