

Anna Pearl Kirkpatrick, Director

Overview

Anna strives to ensure her name is synonymous with dedication. For that reason, Anna employs careful analysis, strategic know-how, and unwavering advocacy to help ensure each case results in the outcome her clients expect.

Anna focuses her practice in insurance defense, litigation, premises liability, workers' compensation, and equine law. Her philosophy is that effective advocacy begins and ends with conscientiousness and that commitment is what she affords clients and colleagues alike. Her dedication is reflected in her work product and case outcomes.

In her free time, Anna is an avid equestrian and enjoys being outdoors. More than likely, you will find her spending time at the barn with her retired racehorse, Bingo Bango Bongo, or walking her two retired racing greyhounds.

Representative Matters

- Argued and won a motion for final summary judgment in a negligence action, resulting in the corporate plaintiff paying attorney fees and costs to the defendant's insurance carrier.
- Assisted in securing a complete defense verdict for an insurance carrier in a Hurricane Irma scope of damages case in Broward County, Florida.
- Achieved multiple dismissals without monies paid in both first-party property and third-party liability matters.
