

Lafayette Attorney Steven Bucher Appointed to Vice-Chair to the ABA's Tort Trial & Insurance Practice's Cybersecurity and Data Privacy General Committee

Lafayette attorney Steven Bucher was recently appointed to Vice-Chair to the ABA's Tort Trial & Insurance Practice's Cybersecurity and Data Privacy General Committee for the 2018-2019 term.

Steven's practice focuses on representing companies of all shapes and sizes in civil litigation and transactional matters. His litigation practice ranges from insurance defense to disputes related to e-commerce, IT professional liability, and data security. He also provides a variety corporate planning and transactional services related to cybersecurity and e-commerce.

Related Practices

E-Commerce

Cyber Liability

Professional Liability

Attorneys by State