

Daedrea Fenwick Appointed to Atlanta Bar Association CLE Board of Trustees for 2018-2019

Daedrea Fenwick has been appointed to the Atlanta Bar Association's CLE Board of Trustees for the 2018-2019 bar year. The CLE Board of Trustees oversees program development and direction of all continuing legal education courses provided by the Atlanta Bar Association to its over 6,000 members. The Atlanta Bar Association's CLE courses have won national recognition and present quality cost-effective programming to equip lawyers in their areas of practice. In this new role, Daedrea will gain beneficial networking opportunities, educational experiences, as well as professional development, while continuing to promote increased diversity on CLE panels and presentations.

Attorneys by State