

Denise Lambert, Director

Overview

Denise Lambert's singular purpose is to get the best possible result for her clients. To that end, she develops a goal-oriented strategy for each case, keeping in mind what judges and juries care about, and taking the time to develop and understand the underlying subject matter. Denise believes in aggressive, tough advocacy and a client-centered approach to every case. Her insights developed through extensive litigation experience make her a valuable and successful advocate for her clients.

Denise focuses her civil litigation practice on construction, premises liability, and complex commercial litigation. She has defended and tried numerous cases to verdict involving high damage exposures and serious injuries.

Denise was born and raised in Chicago, Illinois before moving to Houston, Texas. When she is not working, she enjoys spending time with friends and family and is an active member of her church and an avid pianist.
