

Pamela M. Triplett, Special Counsel

Overview

Pam came to Galloway with over 30 years of insurance defense experience, including 20 years as litigation counsel with CNA Insurance. This background gives her special perspective when working for insurance clients, with a focus on communication, early evaluation and litigation focused on achieving the best outcomes efficiently and effectively. Pam is licensed in Missouri and Illinois and has tried cases throughout Missouri and downstate Illinois. She is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale Hubble, which means that her work and ethics are highly regarded by both the judiciary and her legal peers.

Before earning her law degree from Washington University in St. Louis, Pam earned her Bachelor of Music degree at Illinois Wesleyan University. She continues to be active musically by singing with the St. Louis Symphony Chorus.
