

Matt Clyde, Associate

Overview

Matt Clyde began his legal career at a defense firm and later joined a plaintiff-focused firm, gaining experience along the way from both sides. The unique insight Matt gained helps him provide the best service and resolutions for his clients today.

Matt's practice includes toxic tort, asbestos, workers' compensation, and insurance litigation. He defends clients ranging from small, family-owned businesses all the way up to Fortune 500 companies, as well as their insurers. Matt is also a skilled negotiator with success for his clients pre-trial and in mediations.

In his spare time, Matt enjoys attending St. Louis Cardinals and St. Louis Blues games, playing golf, and spending time with family and friends.
