

Tujuana McGee, Associate

Overview

Tujuana McGee is an associate in Galloway's Atlanta, Georgia office. Tujuana's main areas of practice include insurance defense, premises liability, professional malpractice, contractual liability, general liability, personal injury defense, employment law, construction law and estate planning and administration.

Tujuana is a graduate of the Mississippi College School of Law. At Mississippi College, she was a member of the moot court board, winning several advocate awards and was inducted into the National Order of Barristers, which represents the top student advocates in the United States. While in law school, she served as a legal extern for United States District Judge Daniel Jordan for the Southern District Court of Mississippi.

For several years, Tujuana has represented clients big and small, both inside and outside the courtroom. Tujuana aims to assist clients in making the best decisions, whether that includes taking a case to trial, or working to resolve a case through alternative resolutions.
