

B. Eric Berkley, Special Counsel

Overview

Eric Berkley focuses his practice on worker's compensation, subrogation, personal injury, appellate and general insurance defense work. He regularly represents large employers and insurance companies with strict handling requirements and has handled hundreds of administrative hearings and litigation cases, including first-chairing bench and jury trials.

Eric's clients appreciate his zealousness, attention to detail and one-on-one communication. No client question is ever small or unimportant.

Eric is a born-and-bred Texan and proud of his small-town roots. He, his wife and son call North Texas home. In his spare time, Eric enjoys creative writing, a skill he also brings into his legal practice. While in law school, Eric completed a semester abroad at University College, Oxford.
