

Frank Sedita , Associate

---

Overview

Frank focuses his practice on commercial litigation and insurance defense and coverage. Thorough and meticulous, he brings his extensive and unique style from his years as a Plaintiff's attorney. Frank considers himself a passionate advocate for all of his clients. His affable personality resonates well with clients, and he serves their needs with professionalism and expediency.

Frank is a native Houstonian, and a graduate of South Texas College of Law where he received the highest grade in his Federal Criminal Procedure class. This honor allowed him to become the first student from South Texas College of Law to be an observer at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba where he witnessed enemy combatant trials associated with the War of Terror. Frank enjoys playing soccer and spending time with his wife Rachel, daughter Stella, and dog Irene.
