

Margaret M. Guidry, Associate

Overview

In her practice, Margaret Guidry excels at providing an early assessment and insightful analysis of the applicable law. She identifies the best opportunities to negotiate an early resolution and, if necessary, develops a litigation strategy designed to achieve the best possible outcome. Responsiveness and timely, thorough reporting are priorities in how Margaret engages with clients.

Margaret advises clients and litigates insurance defense matters, including both first-party coverage and third-party liability cases. Her litigation experience includes defense of complex transportation, products liability, and premises liability claims involving bodily injury.

In addition to practicing law, Margaret is a Louisiana-licensed commercial lines adjuster. She is also an LSU fan who enjoys the Louisiana outdoors, cultural events, and artistic pursuits.
