

Employers Take Note: The CROWN Act Takes Effect in Louisiana

As of August 1, 2022, Louisiana's CROWN Act ("Creating a Respectful and Open World for Natural Hair") will prohibit race-based hair discrimination in employment, education, public accommodations, and housing in Louisiana. A similar law has already been in effect in the city of New Orleans since December 2020

Read More HERE

Related Practices

Employment Law

Related Industries

Retail & Restaurant

Real Estate/Real Property

Hospitality, Entertainment, and

Leisure

Health Care

Construction

Amusements, Sports, and

Recreation

Attorneys by State

LOUISIANA

Doris T. Bobadilla

Wendell Hall