ABOUT ALLISON

Allison Thompson is a litigation defense attorney who understands the value of effective communication and outstanding preparation to deliver favorable results for her clients. She prioritizes responsiveness and accessibility, ensuring her clients are kept well-informed throughout litigation and the legal process.

Allison primarily focuses her practice on insurance defense and coverage in the retail, restaurant, and transportation industries. When partnering with clients, she emphasizes collaboration, working together to achieve the individual objectives for each client and each situation.

Allison practices law in her hometown of St. Louis. Outside of her practice, she likes to travel, attend concerts, stay active, read, and bake. Allison also enjoys spending time with her friends, family, and dog, Petunia.
