ABOUT ANDY

Andy Krone's clients depend on his extensive trial and alternative dispute resolution experience, providing them with accurate, early case assessments and relentlessly pursuing a successful outcome at trial or in mediation. Prior to his legal career, Andy was a professional in the banking and finance industry, experience which allows him to assess case details quickly and provides a deep understanding of how a claim or dispute will affect his client's business – and their bottom line.

Andy focuses his civil litigation practice on cases involving trucking and transportation, personal injury, construction defects, premises liability, and general commercial litigation. Specifically, Andy has handled complex litigation, including death cases, automobile and trucking personal injury lawsuits, worksite accidents involving heavy commercial equipment, slip and fall cases, and general liability matters.

Andy was recognized in 2020 and again in 2021 as "One to Watch" in Transportation Law by Best Lawyers.

A Texas native, Andy enjoys spending his time with his wife and young son and their various pets, lifting weights, playing golf, and reading.
