ABOUT ANNA

Anna Jones is a corporate and construction defense attorney based in New Orleans. Her practice focuses on construction litigation, commercial litigation, premises liability, product liability, and insurance defense.

Anna draws on her communications and journalism background in her approach to persuasive writing, oral advocacy, and client service. She focuses on clear communication and developing solution-minded strategies tailored to the needs of each matter.

Before joining Galloway, Anna practiced labor and employment law, where she gained experience in matters involving workplace disputes, discrimination, and retaliation claims.

A Louisiana native, Anna plays classical piano and writes creative fiction in her free time. She also enjoys traveling, and acting and singing in local community theatre productions.
