ABOUT ATHINA

When it comes to client services, Athina Lehovitis' meticulous attention to detail sets her apart. Athina's clients know that they can always expect promptness, precision, and thorough work in each matter she handles.

Athina focuses her practice on insurance defense and coverage, particularly in the area of first party property insurance defense. She enjoys navigating the complexities of law within her practice, and draws on her previous years as a legal assistant and paralegal where she assisted with multiple first party property insurance defense cases. In addition to Athina's focus on insurance, she looks to expand her practice to estate planning.

A first generation Greek-American, Athina enjoys her Greek heritage and engaging in Greek cultural events. When not at work, you can find her enjoying the outdoors.
