ABOUT BRENDEN

Brenden Collins prides himself on his zealous advocacy and attention to detail. Whether a case requires early settlement, strategic litigation, or trial, Brenden boldly approaches any challenge, and his efficient approach to litigation translates to positive and cost-effective outcomes for his clients.

Brenden's practice encompasses all aspects of general civil litigation, automobile accident, premises liability, product liability, construction defect, copyright, and first-party property matters across Florida.

A Tampa native, Brenden is a proud Double Gator and alumni of the University of Florida Cheerleading Team. In his free time, Brenden enjoys staying active, traveling, and enjoying live music.
