ABOUT CAMRYN

Camryn Thompson is a corporate and construction defense attorney based in New Orleans, representing businesses operating in Louisiana. Her practice focuses on construction litigation, construction defect claims, contract disputes, and corporate transactions, and she delivers observant, thorough, and driven representation geared toward efficient, favorable resolutions for her clients.

Before joining Galloway, Camryn gained experience in medical malpractice and personal injury matters in plaintiff's firms, providing her insight into how claims are evaluated and pursued. She applies that perspective in her current practice, approaching contractual and litigation matters with a focus on detail, preparation, and creative problem-solving.

Outside of her practice, Camryn enjoys spending time with her friends and family, live music, and giving back to her community. She was born and raised in Memphis and is a fan of the Memphis Grizzlies and University of Arkansas Razorbacks.
