ABOUT CHRISTOPHER

Christopher G. Walker creates strong professional relationships with his clients and keeps their needs at the forefront of his legal services through adept legal writing and creative problem solving. Approaching issues with efficiency and skill, he brings enthusiasm and dedication to each case.

Focusing on protecting his clients' businesses, Christopher practices in the areas of insurance defense, personal injury defense, and construction matters. His liability practice includes premises liability and professional liability. Christopher previously clerked for Chief Justice Roger A. Page (Ret.) of the Tennessee Supreme Court in the summer of 2023.

Born and raised in Lexington, Tennessee, Christopher enjoys roller skating and playing rugby for a few teams in the New Orleans area. When he is outside of the office, he means it – you can find him backpacking through our nation's wilderness or surfing Lake Pontchartrain when conditions are right.
