ABOUT COLE

Cole Heller is a defense attorney based in Atlanta who represents businesses across Georgia in transportation and general liability matters. His practice focuses on premises liability, construction litigation, and trucking-related claims, where he partners with clients to address risk and defend against litigation that can impact business operations and reputation.

Cole has experience in probate matters, which informs his broader perspective of how legal issues intersect across varied areas of practice.

Clients appreciate his practical approach, accessibility, and focus on moving matters forward efficiently.

When not advising his clients, Cole enjoys staying active through sports.
