ABOUT CORY

Cory Lewis is a products liability defense attorney based in New Orleans, Louisiana, who represents businesses and carriers in products liability matters. His practice also includes personal injury defense and toxic tort litigation.

With a background in theatre and graphic design, Cory understands the role storytelling plays in effective legal advocacy. He considers the audience when developing how to present a case, tailoring his approach to communicate his clients' positions clearly and persuasively. Cory looks beyond immediate concerns when evaluating legal issues and remains focused on pursuing his clients' legal objectives from early case assessment through resolution.

Outside of work, Cory enjoys playing tabletop and card games, reading mysteries and nonfiction biographies, and discovering new places to eat.
