ABOUT HOAI

Hoai T. Hoang is a defense attorney with more than 20 years of litigation and trial experience representing businesses, governmental agencies and insurers. Based in Lafayette, Louisiana, he provides practical, efficient advocacy with a focus on early case evaluation and disciplined case management.

Hoai's practice includes insurance defense and coverage matters, construction matters, premises liability matters, municipal and public entity defense, and contractual disputes. From the onset of each matter, he works diligently to identify key legal and factual issues so that client and firm resources are applied strategically and effectively throughout the life of the case. Whether by judge trial, jury trial, mediation or arbitration, Hoai has the first chair experience to bring clients' matters to conclusion. He trained with well-respected litigators at his prior firm and now takes his skills and passion of lifelong learning about the law to Galloway.

Born in Vietnam and raised in south Louisiana, Hoai (pronounced h-why) enjoys outdoor activities including gardening, fishing, hunting, and volleyball outside of work.
