ABOUT JACOB

Jacob Vegas is a corporate defense attorney based in Houston and The Woodlands, Texas. He represents businesses and corporate clients in litigation involving premises liability, personal injury, construction defects, and complex commercial disputes. His practice focuses on matters in the construction, maritime, and energy industries.

Jacob works closely with clients to understand their business priorities and to develop litigation strategies suited to each matter, treating their goals and concerns as his own. He prioritizes genuine relationships with his clients and partners with them in evaluating options at each stage of litigation, from early assessment through discovery, motion practice, and resolution.

He also maintains professional and collegial working relationships with opposing counsel and focuses on resolving disputes efficiently while protecting his clients' interests.

Jacob was born and raised in Friendswood, Texas, in the Greater Houston area. Outside of his practice, he enjoys golf, hiking, reading on the beach, and traveling with his fiancé.
