ABOUT JAKE

Understanding all of his clients' needs, Jake Sonenblum has a 100% commitment to obtaining the best results and will not stop working until the job is done. Jake aims to provide exceptional liability analysis with the most relevant statutory and case law. He understands how difficult and overwhelming the litigation process can be for someone faced with a lawsuit. With keen awareness, he is able to consistently identify all avenues for early resolution while providing prompt communication and transparency through every step of the process.

Jake focuses his practice in the areas of litigation, premises liability, insurance defense and coverage, and construction.

Originally from Long Island, NY, Jake moved to Florida for law school and decided to stay. He spends his free time playing golf and going to the beach as much as possible.
