ABOUT JEANNETH

Before starting with Galloway, Jeanneth was an Assistant State Attorney with the State of Florida. She handled misdemeanor cases, moved to juvenile cases, and was promoted to felonies. As a result, she obtained early courtroom experience. Jeanneth is a great listener and communicator with a knack for detail.

Before law school, Jeanneth worked as a legal assistant and case manager for several plaintiff personal injury firms. This experience assists her in evaluating a case from both sides. During law school, she was the Managing Editor of Law Journal and Associate Editor of Law Review.

Jeanneth was born and raised in Miami, Florida, and moved to Tampa in 2018 for law school. She aspires to become a member of the Tampa Hispanic Bar Association. Jeanneth is fluent in Spanish.

Jeanneth loves going to Universal Studios, and spending time with her boyfriend and her dog as well as family and friends. She also enjoys shopping, going to the beach, going to the gym, and exploring the Tampa Bay area.
