ABOUT JESSICA

Jessica Gomez is a Fort Lauderdale defense attorney who represents businesses and insurers throughout Florida. Her practice focuses on insurance defense with an emphasis on premises liability and general negligence cases. Jessica employs a practical, client-first approach to move matters forward towards favorable resolution.

With experience in handling cases from early evaluation through discovery, depositions, and motion practice, Jessica is responsive, organized, efficient, and proactive in partnering with her clients. She delivers straightforward guidance, understands the facts early, and develops a strategy that is reasonable for each case and aligned with her clients' business and legal objectives.

Jessica was born in South Carolina and raised in South Florida, and as part of a military family, she learned the value of adapting and embracing new opportunities from a young age. When not practicing law, she enjoys spending time with her husband and their daughter, hosting friends and family, planning trips, and traveling.
