ABOUT JOJO

Jojo Wei is committed to aiding companies and corporations navigate not only their legal issues but also taking into account their business needs. He takes pride in providing responsive representation as well as a detailed litigation strategy for every step of the legal process.

Jojo focuses his practice on insurance defense. He has previously represented clients in the field of employment law, contract negotiation and drafting, as well as tax and bankruptcy. However, his main passion is to aid businesses in pursuing and achieving their aims beyond the field of litigation.

Jojo is a Georgia native and enjoys following all sports, including basketball and tennis. During his free time, he spends time with his family and explores restaurants in Atlanta.
