ABOUT JONATHON

Jonathon Austin is an experienced and efficient attorney committed to effectively achieving his clients' objectives. When issues arise, he takes the time to precisely analyze all possibilities and provide valuable feedback to his clients with a range of outcomes, including the best path forward. Jonathon works tirelessly to provide the desired results for his clients, which has proven successful for clients with many different objectives. He keeps his clients well informed throughout the stages of litigation with pertinent legal analysis, and he litigates from a position of expertise and with client objectives in mind.

Jonathon's practice areas include commercial litigation, financial services, contract law, tort law, probate law, and construction. With a wide variety of legal experience in civil litigation, he can successfully tackle any necessary task in delivering client satisfaction. His clients find that Jonathon can convey confusing and complex legal matters in a simple, straightforward, and understandable way. Jonathon keeps close relationships with his clients, recognizes their business objectives, and commits to producing positive results towards their goals.

Jonathon is Southern at heart, being born in South Carolina, raised in Katy, Texas, and now making Dallas his home. When not advocating for his clients, he enjoys relaxing with his girlfriend and dog, reading a wide variety of books, and cheering for his beloved Texas Longhorns in any sport.
