ABOUT JORDAN

Jordan White believes that effective communication and teamwork remain fundamental when it comes to successful representation. He provides responsive representation along with a detailed strategy for every step of the legal process throughout the life of the client's case.

Jordan's practice is primarily focused on insurance defense litigation. He has represented clients in minimal automobile insurance policy cases, commercial trucking cases and everything in between.

Jordan is a native of East Texas who enjoys attending sporting events and cheering on the Texas Longhorns. During his free time, you can find him fishing with his stepfather, cooking, watching movies, and spending time with his nieces and nephew.
