ABOUT JOSH

Josh S. Waldman brings the utmost dedication, positivity, and superior communication skills to his partnerships with clients. Diligent and passionate about representation and advocacy, he is focused and attentive to his client's needs and business objectives. Josh is readily available to listen, brainstorm, and advise at all stages of the legal process, building great relationships along the way.

Josh's clients find an open door and comfort in reaching out to him with questions, issues, or concerns. His practice includes all types of personal injury matters in addition to first- and third-party property insurance claims. Josh also has experience in matters related to automobile accidents, slip and fall, premises liability, and wrongful death.

When not advocating for his clients, Josh enjoys exercising, watching sports, and spending time with his friends, girlfriend, and their two dogs. Born in Manchester, England, and raised in Parkland, Florida, he is a huge Harry Potter fan, with one of his dogs being named after his favorite character, Dobby.
