ABOUT LINCOLN

Lincoln Jones is a transportation and corporate defense attorney based in Atlanta who represents businesses and insurers across Georgia. With over a decade of litigation experience, he focuses his practice on civil defense, transportation and trucking matters, and corporate disputes. His work includes defending claims involving commercial transportation, business operations, and liability exposure.

Lincoln approaches each matter with an emphasis on early case evaluation, practical strategy, and efficient resolution through motion practice, negotiation, or trial when necessary.

He began his legal career handling litigation as both a prosecutor and assistant public defender, fostering courtroom and trial experience that informs his civil defense practice. Lincoln also has prior experience in private practice, including work involving post-conviction civil matters.

A Georgia native, Lincoln enjoys reading, traveling, and spending time with his wife and their two young boys.
