ABOUT MIKHAEL

Diligent and solution-oriented, Mikhael Khan dedicates himself to providing superior quality legal counsel with a client-focused approach. With his background as a judicial clerk at the First Court of Appeals and on the plaintiff's side of personal injury law, he brings unique insight and perspective into the strategies and tactics of all parties, enabling him to anticipate opposing arguments and craft stronger defense strategies.

Mikhael focuses his practice on casualty litigation, insurance defense and coverage, premises liability, mass tort, and transportation law. He has significant experience handling first-party insurance claims, catastrophic injury cases, commercial construction, and multi-party litigation in both state and federal courts. Mikhael's clients trust him for his approachability, transparency, and unwavering commitment to their success. He is committed to ensuring his clients are supported and positioned for favorable outcomes.

Outside of the courtroom, Mikhael enjoys creative pursuits like writing and playing music, which help him to be a strategic problem solver who thinks outside of the box. He also enjoys hiking, working out, traveling, reading, playing video games, and spending time with family, friends, and his beloved cat, Calypso.
