ABOUT NADIA

A pragmatic and outcome oriented litigator, Nadia Savo prioritizes working quickly and efficiently to assist her client from start to finish. Whether through early case resolution or proceeding to trial, she always aims to provide her clients the best results possible. Nadia works closely with corporate insurance companies and insured clients to provide ongoing analysis of potential liability and exposure and advises her clients on legal strategies in order to obtain favorable client results.

Nadia focuses her practice on general civil litigation, premises liability, personal injury, and insurance defense. She has extensive experience defending individuals and insurance companies in first-party insurance investigations and lawsuits involving personal injury, motor vehicle accidents, and premises liability. Nadia has also handled medical malpractice, labor & employment, dram shop, and first party property claims.

Born and raised in Houston, Texas, Nadia enjoys exploring the city's newest restaurants with her husband. When not working, Nadia enjoys spending time with her family, going on walks, traveling, and cycling.
