ABOUT NICKI

Nicki Villarrubia works diligently and efficiently to partner with her clients, to exceed their expectations, and to achieve favorable results in the boardroom and courtroom. She graduated law school in the top 5% of her class, having served as Online Editor of the Loyola Law Review and Chief of Staff of Moot Court. With a reputation for integrity and dedication, Nicki champions her clients, ensuring that their voice is heard and respected.

Nicki focuses her practice on insurance defense, premises liability, general civic litigation, and the Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act. She goes way above and way beyond through excellent legal research and writing. Nicki partners with her clients as an organized problem solver, critically thinking and anticipating their needs throughout the legal process.

Growing up on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, Nicki now makes Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, home with her husband, Zachary, and their two children. Outside of the office, she enjoys reading, yoga, trivia, and New Orleans Saints football.
