ABOUT PAULA

Working best under pressure and tight deadlines, Paula Campione defuses challenging situations with sensibility, humor, and humility. She believes that fostering professional relationships with opposing counsel benefits the client by keeping fees and costs lower and facilitating desirable results. She takes pride in providing thorough evaluations and aggressive advocacy.

With more than 15 years of experience, Paula focuses her practice on insurance, construction, entertainment, and trucking & transportation

Paula credits her love of education, history, and law to heroine Ruth Bader Ginsburg, who influenced her interest in the law from a young age. Much like her heroine, Paula never leaves home without the U.S. Constitution, Declaration of Independence, and Bill of Rights in her purse.

The oldest of 23 first cousins, Paula was born and raised in New Jersey with a big Italian family. She is a traveling and wine enthusiast and enjoys investing her additional free time in fitness, family and friends, and philanthropy.
