ABOUT QIANA

Qiana Wilson Bynum is a family law attorney practicing in Baton Rouge and Lafayette, Louisiana, where she focuses on protecting and advocating for individuals and families in matters involving divorce, community property partitions, child custody, child support, adoptions, and related domestic issues. She believes that legal advocacy should be provided with care, compassion, and integrity while serving as a strategic problem-solver for her clients.

Qiana adeptly manages complex family law cases, guiding clients through each stage of the process from initial filings through resolution. She leverages her experience to develop strategies that move matters forward and position her clients for favorable outcomes.

Her experience includes family law and probate law, particularly in matters where succession and family issues intersect. Qiana's background as a government attorney and as a private practitioner provides a comprehensive perspective on legal matters, allowing her to approach each case with a strong understanding of process, compliance, and effective client advocacy.

Qiana is a Louisiana native who loves to read, fish, and travel to beaches on the East Coast.
