ABOUT RACQUEL

Racquel Hylton is a Fort Lauderdale insurance defense attorney who represents Florida businesses and insurers in liability and civil litigation. Her practice includes premises liability, wrongful death, automobile negligence, trucking and transportation defense, and construction defect litigation. Racquel's strength in early case evaluation and developing efficient litigation strategies helps position matters early to streamline litigation and mitigate risk. Clients rely on her for clear communication, organization, and a proactive approach that keeps cases moving forward.

Racquel has experience in both private insurance defense and as in-house counsel, which informs her evaluation of legal merits, risk, exposure, and resolution strategy. She has managed a large and diverse caseload across a broad range of matters, including drafting and arguing dispositive motions, managing discovery, taking and defending depositions, and preparing cases for trial. Her background allows her to assess claims early and develop practical paths toward resolution.

Racquel began her legal career as an Assistant Public Defender, where she gained significant courtroom and trial experience that shaped her pragmatic approach to litigation.

A Tampa native, Racquel enjoys traveling, wellness activities, and spending time with her loved ones.
