ABOUT SANJAY

Mindful of open communication and attentiveness, Sanjay Das partners with his clients and works efficiently and effectively to help them achieve their business and legal goals. He brings a supportive, cooperative, and detail-oriented approach to each client relationship and matter.

Sanjay concentrates his practice on commercial and transportation litigation, particularly in trucking cases. His previous experience includes immigration law and working with the ACLU of Louisiana. Additionally, Sanjay has an extensive background in the service industry, which has given him the skills in precision, time management, and client service that allows him to be wholly focused on client needs.

Sanjay was born in San Francisco, California, before being raised in Virginia, where he attended the University of Virginia. Outside of his law practice, he is an avid reader and enjoys running.
