ABOUT SIERRA

Sierra Bernard is a transportation defense attorney based in Atlanta, where she represents transportation companies and their insurers in matters across Georgia. Her practice focuses on insurance defense, coverage, and transportation-related litigation.

Sierra takes a collaborative and structured approach to her work, partnering with clients and the Galloway team to understand the issues involved in each matter and support effective case strategies. Before attending law school, she worked as a paralegal for a personal injury firm in Nashville, Tennessee. That experience gave her insight into the litigation process from the plaintiff side and provides a useful perspective in her work defending transportation companies and insurers.

Born and raised in Huntsville, Alabama, Sierra enjoys exercising, building LEGO sets, and binge-watching her favorite shows.
